**IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS - PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW** PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR AGENCY LICENSE

Applications are accepted by mail or drop off only. Applications must be accompanied by a legible, notarized copy of your driver's license, one fingerprint card with classifiable fingerprints, applicable fees, and two passport style photographs (head and shoulders facing camera).

PERSONAL QUALIFICATIONS

The qualifying party and all partners, LLC member/managers, and corporate officer/directors must meet the criteria listed in Arizona Revised Statute ' 32-2422 (A).**

The qualifying party must provide written documentation verifying three years of full-time investigation experience. Written documentation can be provided in two forms:

- a. Letter(s) from previous employer(s) verifying at least three years full-time investigative work experience.
- b. Documentation verifying at least 6,000 hours of investigative work experience.

APPLICATION

Please submit a private investigation agency application for the qualifying party and a private investigator registration application for every partner, LLC member/manager, and corporate officer/director. Each applicant must specify the purpose of the application by marking the appropriate box in the Private Investigation Agency or Private Investigator column. All applications must be filled out completely and signed before a notary public. If the qualifying party's application is not signed before a notary public, if the qualifying party's fingerprints are not classifiable, or if the qualifying party's fees are incorrect, the application will be returned to the qualifying party without further action. Applications, which are otherwise incomplete, will be accepted and the qualifying party will be advised of the items, which must be completed before the license can be issued.

AGENCY APPLICATION: APPLICANT INFORMATION

Please ensure you include any space, unit or apartment number in your home address. Other names you have used including aliases, name before adoption, maiden name or previous married name.

AGENCY APPLICATION: EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

List your past, five years of employment and any other employment, which relates to your qualifications for a license. Please list any private investigation agency licenses you have held or currently hold in other states and include a copy of each license.

AGENCY APPLICATION: AGENCY INFORMATION

A name must be selected for the agency. You should check on the availability of your preferred agency name before registering it with the Arizona Corporation Commission or Arizona Secretary of State by calling the licensing unit at 602-223-2361. The Licensing Unit will assign the agency license number. The principal business address must be the physical address from which the agency will do business and need not be in Arizona. A separate mailing address may be used. Only branches in Arizona must be listed with addresses and phone numbers.

AGENCY APPLICATION: AGENCY STRUCTURE

Indicate the agency structure by marking the appropriate box.

Sole Proprietor - The qualifying party alone will operate the business as the sole owner. By definition, a sole proprietorship cannot have any associates. Sole proprietors may register the trade name under which they are doing business with the Arizona Secretary of State. The bond must be written to the qualifying party and the private investigation agency. If a trade name is used, the bond must also show the trade name (e.g. AJohn Smith dba John Smith Investigations@).

General/Limited Partnership - A partnership is an association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners of a business for profit. List all partners in this section. Partnerships must submit a copy of the partnership agreement with all partners= signatures notarized on the agreement. The bond must be written to the qualifying party and the private investigation agency. If a trade name is used, the bond must also show the trade name (e.g. AJohn Smith dba John Smith Investigations@).

General partnerships may register their trade name with the Arizona Secretary of State.

Limited partnerships must register with the Arizona Secretary of State under certain circumstances and should consult applicable statutes and rules to determine specific requirements.

Limited Liability Company (LLC) - A company with at least one owner organized under applicable statutes to conduct business. List all member/managers in this section. Submit a copy of the Articles of Organization bearing the received/approved stamp of the Arizona Corporation Commission. Any subsequent changes, which affect the list of member/managers of the company, must also be submitted to the Arizona Department of Public Safety Licensing Unit. A company, which intends to do business under a trade name, must include that trade name in the Articles of Organization or register the trade name separately with the Arizona Secretary of State and provide a copy of the trade name registration to the Licensing Unit. The bond must be written to the qualifying party and the private investigation agency. If a trade name is used, the bond must also show the trade name (e.g. AJohn Smith and John Smith Investigations, LLC dba Smitty=s Investigations@).

Corporation - List all officers, members and directors of the corporation in this section. Submit a copy of the Articles of Incorporation bearing the received/approved stamp of the Arizona Corporation Commission. Any subsequent changes to the Articles of Incorporation, which affect the list of officers or directors, must also be submitted to the Arizona Department of Public Safety Licensing Unit. A corporation, which intends to do business under a trade name, must register that trade name with the Arizona Secretary of State and provide a copy of the trade name registration to the Licensing Unit. The bond must be written to the qualifying party and the private investigation agency. If a trade name is used, the bond must also show the trade name (e.g. AJohn Smith and John Smith Investigations, Inc. dba Smitty=s Investigations@).

Foreign LLC/Corporation, a company organized or incorporated outside Arizona, must apply to the Arizona Corporation Commission for authority to transact business in Arizona. A copy of the approved application and the Articles of Organization/Incorporation must accompany the application for an agency license. A foreign corporation, which intends to do business under a trade name, must register that trade name with the Arizona Secretary of State and provide a copy of the trade name registration to the Arizona Department of Public Safety.

Private Investigation Agency License Application Instructions

AGENCY APPLICATION: GENERAL

Describe the specific nature of the investigative services the agency intends to perform.

REGISTRATION APPLICATION: ASSOCIATE(S)

If the agency has associates, the qualifying party must mark the associate application block in the private investigator column of the private investigator registration application and then complete and sign the employer/licensee section of each associate=s application. The associate must complete the employee/applicant section of the application and sign it.

FINGERPRINTS

A local law enforcement agency may take the fingerprints. Classifiable fingerprints of the qualifying party and all associates must be submitted with the application. Criteria for classifiable fingerprints are listed on the back of the card. Fingerprints, which are not classifiable, will be returned with the application and fees. Do not use highlighter on the fingerprint card. Fingerprint cards should not be folded but if you must fold one ensure that each fold is along a blue line to avoid damaging print images.

AUTHORIZED SIGNERS

The qualifying party must designate employees who are authorized to sign employee registration certificate applications. This designation must be submitted to the licensing unit in writing and must include a sample signature of each designee. Only the qualifying party may designate authorized signers.

BOND

The $2500 bond shall be executed by a corporation licensed to transact fidelity and surety business in Arizona and signed by you as principal. The bond shall be continuous in form and run concurrently with the two-year period of your license. The bond shall be in favor of the state for the benefit of any person injured by any acts of you, your agency, or your employees and is subject to claims by any person who is injured by these acts. DO NOT obtain the bond until your application is approved and you are instructed to do so.

WORKERS= COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Workers= compensation insurance coverage must be in force whenever the agency has employees. An employee waiver of coverage does not relieve the employer of the requirement to obtain the insurance. The certificate of insurance must indicate that the AArizona Department of Public Safety, Licensing Unit, P.O. Box 6328, Phoenix, AZ 85005-6328" is a ACertificate Holder.@ A current certificate must be filed with the Licensing Unit upon each renewal of the coverage. Foreign insurance companies must certify that the coverage they provide extends to operations in Arizona.

RESTRUCTURE

If you change your agency name or structure (e.g. sole proprietorship to partnership, or partnership to LLC, or corporation, etc.), the qualifying party must notify the Licensing Unit and submit a restructuring application, appropriate documentation and fees. Restructuring fees will be waived if the restructuring occurs at the same time the agency license is renewed. A change of qualifying party cannot be accomplished by restructuring since the agency license is not transferable or assignable.

RENEWAL

The qualifying party is solely responsible for renewing the agency license before it expires. Agencies, which intend to cease operations and not renew the license, should notify the Licensing Unit in writing.
